A SOLID FOUNDATION

Longowal Group of Colleges is not only the locus of education in Punjab, but has acquired the potential of being a lodestone for students from all over India. The college laid its foundation stone in 1986 at Dera Bassi and since then it has elevated to the region's top educational forum. It won't be exaggeration to say that the college has preened itself into one of the most prestigious institutions in the education domain. 40 years of inspiring legacy of Late Shri B.B. Katyal, the founder, the visionary and dedicated educationist is well preserved here. The college boasts of amaze balls infrastructure that entwines magnificent buildings, sprawling and virid lawns, well equipped and updated labs and library, well furnished and home- like hostels for both boys and girls and so on so forth.

The able and devout faculty is duly committed to the students needs and requirements. They are accessible round the clock in both offline and online mode. Curriculum encompasses sports and social activities as well which leads to multifaceted development of the child. The pass outs from LGCs are readily absorbed by eminent organizations.

Journey of thousand miles starts with a single step !
